New MD Program Student Organization Proposal

For considerations as a new group, please submit the following information to Casey Smith at casey.smith@ucf.edu.

- this completed form
- a draft of your organization's constitution (using the MD Program Constitution template)
- an email from your faculty advisor(s) accepting the advisor role

New groups are approved by both Student Council and the Associate Dean for Students. New groups that are too similar in mission or goals to current active groups will be denied. Decisions are typically made within three weeks of submission.
