Laboratory Technician Position, Part-Time/Full-Time

The Moreno lab has an open position for a laboratory technician. This position is in a research laboratory focused on the emergence and evolution of bacterial pathogens. The research lab is located at the UCF Burnett School of Biomedical Sciences in the Main Campus.

For more information about our research interests please visit the lab’s website: vibrio cholerae.org

About the position:

This is an OPS (non-benefit earning) position however health insurance may be offered.

Specific duties include but are not limited to:
1) Performing molecular and microbiological assays
2) Applying bioinformatic tools to genomic data
3) Working with mouse models
4) Maintaining lab inventories
5) Performing general laboratory duties

The successful candidate will work on independent research projects as well as assist other lab members pursue the broader goals of the Moreno lab. An ability to positively interact with students is essential.

Minimum qualifications and expertise:

Degree:
Required: BS.
Preferred: MS.

Background:
Molecular microbiology, genomics.

Experience:
Required: Bacteriology and Molecular biology
Preferred: Experience with genomics and/or cell culture is strongly preferred.
The candidate must have great attention to detail, be well-organized, self-motivated, and function well in a team setting.

Contact:
To apply, please email 1) cover letter 2) CV, and 3) contact information for three references to Dr. Almagro-Moreno: samoreno@ucf.edu.
Review of applications will begin on March 19th until the position is filled.