

Dear Class of 2019,

It is time to purchase the tools of your trade – your own doctor’s bag. This can be a time-consuming and expensive process, so the UCF College of Medicine chapter of the American Medical Student Association (AMSA) has arranged a convenient and cost-effective option for you. We have been able to negotiate a discounted rate for a complete doctor’s bag with all the required and recommended tools. This year we are offering 2 packages, the “Standard Package” which includes just the required items and a “PanOptic Package” that includes the Diagnostic Set with the PanOptic Ophthalmoscope and Coaxial Ophthalmoscope. All the equipment has been reviewed and approved by the clinical skills faculty. The oto/ophthalmoscope, stethoscope, and sphygmomanometer are the top of the line. They are the level of quality the faculty wants you to have and will last you your entire career.

Also you will receive these special AMSA promotions with your order.

- Free upgrade to LED lights in the Welch Allyn Otoscopes & Ophthalmoscopes. ($200.00 value)
- When you purchase any Welch Allyn 3.5V diagnostic set and blood pressure device with the group sale Welch Allyn will donate $75.00 of medical equipment to organizations providing assistance to those who need it most.
- Purchase a Welch Allyn Panoptic Diagnostic Set and get the 11720 Coaxial Ophthalmoscope for $35.00 (otherwise priced at $190.00)
- Purchase any Welch Allyn Diagnostic set and receive a FREE Educational Value Pack (EVP).
 - The EVP contains great educational aids, pocket size eye chart, a reference book entitled
 - Guide to Eye & Ear Examinations, and a Lerner Practice Eye.
- Purchase a 3M Littmann Cardiology III or Master Cardiology Stethoscope and receive a FREE “Student Accessory Kit” valued at $20.00 (Kit includes name tags, extra ear tips and a CD of actual heart sounds).
- With the purchase of any Physician’s Bag, you can have your bag personalized FREE with up to 4 initials.

Buying your doctor’s bag through AMSA is entirely voluntary. If you want to buy your equipment from AMSA, but already own an item (a stethoscope, for example) you can deduct that item from your order. Remember that you must have your equipment by Aug 14th, and all the equipment you already own needs to be approved by the clinical skills faculty! Contact Caridad Hernandez, M.D. (caridad.hernandez@ucf.edu) if you have questions.
