New MedEdPublish Theme

Life Sciences in an Integrated Curriculum

In this special edition of MedEdPublish, they aim to start a conversation about innovative, engaging and effective ways to support learners in their study of the Life Sciences; including anatomy, genetics, biochemistry and physiology. Authors are encouraged to upload their manuscript through the online submission form between April 1st and June 16th.

Please visit the AMEE MedEdPublish website to learn more about the latest and upcoming themes.
