Faculty Development Opportunities

- ❖ The IAMSE Conference Travel Awards support students or junior faculty to attend the IAMSE Annual Meeting. The amount of the 2015 Travel Awards will be $1,500, and are meant to cover expenses related to attendance at the IAMSE annual meeting in San Diego, such as conference registration, lodging, and airfare. Any IAMSE member who will attend the 2015 Annual Meeting is eligible to apply, though preference will be given to those submitting conference proposals for a poster abstract. To be considered for the award, an applicant must submit the following items:
  1. a current CV
  2. A 300 word Personal Statement
  3. An abstract or description of the work, if applicableApplications must be submitted via e-mail, in duplicate, to: linda@iamse.org and steinj@upstate.edu by February 3, 2015
- ❖ Through a grant from the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation, Osmosis is developing and curating high-yield open educational resources in the form of questions, images, videos, mnemonics, and other resources as described here.
Submissions due by: November 2, 2014

Updates

• • •

Register with UCF for International Travel Insurance for faculty

UCF will alert you of any issues within a 20 mile radius of your event and fly you home if needed. Even events that UCF isn't paying for can be covered as long as faculty fill out a TAR.
