

Teaching on the Fly Outline and Tips

Introduction to 3 clinical teaching models for busy physicians: One Minute Preceptor, 3-step Approach for Time Efficient Teaching and Aunt Minnie.

While all clinical teaching methods can be useful, the outcomes from implementing the One Minute Preceptor versus the Aunt Minnie model will produce higher order skills for learners. Consider utilizing a combination of approaches in your busy office.

Steps for the One Minute Preceptor

- Get a commitment
- Probe for supporting evidence
- Teach general rules
- Reinforce what was done well
- Correct mistakes

Steps for the 3-Step Approach for Time Efficient Teaching

- Planning
- Teaching
- Evaluating/Reflecting

Elements for the Aunt Minnie Model

- Encourage rapid pattern recognition
- Student presents (Chief Complaint and Diagnosis)
- Preceptor provides feedback

Questions for reflection

- What are the common patient cases you expect students to experience in your specialty?
- Which teaching model best facilitates the learning for each case? Why?
- What common patient cases do you expect residents to experience in your specialty?
- Does the model shift based on the level of the learner?
