

Exit Policy

Graduating students will be contacted in the spring of their graduation year and informed of any holds on their account. Students will also be expected to return any and all identification badges from affiliated teaching partners. They will also be expected to return any College of Medicine property (i.e. mailbox keys, clerkship property). Students will be expected to clear all holds and return all items before their diploma and transcript will be released.