LEGACY CHAIR CAMPAIGN

THE LEWIS AUDITORIUM

The doors are now open for the next great opportunity to help our exemplary medical students—the Legacy Chair Campaign.

Naming a chair in UCF's Lewis Auditorium is a unique and fitting way to have a permanent legacy within the College of Medicine or to honor or memorialize a loved one. Giving to the campaign also allows you to afford medical students front row seats to the opportunity of their lives: a premier medical education.

Take a Seat. Start Your Legacy.

The Legacy Chair Campaign is an opportunity to help future doctors receive the quality education they need to make a positive impact on Central Florida. The chance to make a difference and ensure your legacy is only available as long as the seats are available.

Don't sit out this unique opportunity to be a part of UCF College of Medicine history!
