The new clerkship OSCE feedback system each block would appear to be a way to pick up on and hopefully address concerns about clinical skill deficits. The M3/M4 subcommittee discussion today focused on whether SEPC has a role in monitoring of students who have professionalism concerns that do not rise to the threshold of a yellow/red card in a clerkship. For example, should SEPC be monitoring the comments in the Professionalism box of the end-of-clerkship evaluation form completed by the clerkship directors? | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The article from Academic Medicine "The Influence of Prior Performance Information on Ratings of Current Performance and Implications for Learner Handover: A Scoping Review" was reviewed. • Dr. Gibson will be invited to the next M3/M4 meeting to discuss learner handover and professionalism. | Dr. Klapheke | In-Progress |
