

UNIVERSITY OF CENTRAL FLORIDA

RESIDENCY DECLARATION FOR THE COLLEGE OF MEDICINE'S M.D. PROGRAM

In accordance with state statutes the College of Medicine reviews residency classification requests for graduate students matriculating to the College of Medicine's M.D. program.

The University of Central Florida cannot make exceptions to the guidelines set forth by the state. These exceptions include extenuating circumstances based on financial hardship. You should submit a minimum of three documents if seeking Florida residency for tuition purposes. All documentation must be dated at least twelve consecutive months before the first day of classes for the term in which you intend to enroll.

The burden of proof is on the student to provide clear and compelling evidence that their residency in Florida is permanent and not incidental to enrollment at UCF.

It is important to note that living in Florida for a year or longer does not automatically qualify a student for in-state tuition. Therefore, despite the time you attend UCF, you may never be eligible for "Florida Residency for Tuition Purposes."

Current M.D. program students (M2 through M4) seeking to reclassify to in-state tuition need to contact the College of Medicine's Registrar for appropriate information.

A Florida "resident for tuition purposes" has or is a dependent person whose parent or legal guardian has established and maintained legal residency in Florida for at least twelve (12) consecutive months. Note it must be twelve consecutive months preceding the first day of classes of the M.D. program's term if the student is seeking Florida residency.

- Residence in Florida must be a bona fide domicile rather than for the purpose of maintaining a residence incident to enrollment at an institution of higher education.
- To qualify as a Florida resident for tuition purposes, you must be a U.S. citizen, a foreign national in a nonimmigrant visa classification that grants you the legal ability to establish a bona fide domicile in the United States, a permanent resident alien, parolee, asylee, Cuban-Haitian entrant, legal alien granted indefinite stay by the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services, or other qualified alien as defined under federal law. Other persons not meeting the twelve-month legal residence requirements may be classified as Florida residents for tuition purposes only if they fall within one of the limited special categories authorized by the Florida Legislature pursuant to section 1009.21, Florida Statutes (see "Qualification by Exception" below). All other persons are ineligible for classification as a Florida "resident for tuition purposes.
- Living in or attending school in Florida will not, in itself, establish legal residence. Students who depend upon out-of-state parents for support are presumed to be legal residents of the same state as their parents.
- Residency for tuition purposes requires the establishment of legal ties to the state of Florida. A student must verify that the student has broken ties to other states if the student or, in the case of a dependent student, his or her parent has moved from another state.
